

POLICY NO. 001 – CUSTOMER CONFIDENTIALITY

MCE will maintain the confidentiality of individual customers' names, service addresses, billing addresses, telephone numbers, account numbers, and electricity consumption, except where reasonably necessary to conduct MCE's business or to provide services to customers, including but not limited to where such disclosure is necessary to (a) comply with the law or regulations; (b) enable MCE to provide service to its customers; (c) collect unpaid bills; (d) obtain and provide credit reporting information; or (e) resolve customer disputes or inquiries. MCE will not disclose customer information for telemarketing, e-mail, or direct mail solicitation. Aggregate data may be released at MCE's discretion. MCE will handle customer energy usage information in a manner that is fully compliant with the California Public Utility Commission's required privacy protections for customers of Community Choice Aggregators defined in Decision 12-08-045.
