MCE CEO Dawn Weisz Leaves Agency

SAN RAFAEL and CONCORD, Calif. – MCE CEO Dawn Weisz’s last day with the agency was Wednesday, June 17. The Board will begin recruitment for a new CEO. Additional information about the process will be provided at a later date. Vicken Kasarjian, MCE’s Chief Operating Officer since 2018, will continue to serve as Acting CEO.

MCE remains committed to its mission to reduce electricity-related greenhouse gas emissions while providing equitable community benefits and cost-competitive clean energy services to customers across its service area. The Board of Directors is confident in the agency’s ability to seamlessly continue operations during this transition.

No further comment on the matter will be provided by MCE staff or members of the Board at this time.

About MCE: MCE is a not-for-profit public agency and the preferred electricity provider for more than 600,000 customer accounts and 1.8 million residents and businesses across Contra Costa, Marin, Napa, and Solano counties. Setting the standard for clean energy in California since 2010, MCE leads with 60-100% renewable power at stable rates, serving a 1400 MW peak load, significantly reducing greenhouse emissions, and reinvesting millions in local programs.
