MCE Board of Directors:

MCE faces a serious erosion of public trust, which has been caused, apparently, by self-inflicted, injurious activities.

Perhaps the Board Members are unaware of the increasing public concerns about the Grand Jury Report and attempts to cherrypick membership for the Ad Hoc CEO Search Committee and discredit the Marin Civil Grand Jury Report?

MCE would do well to cease indulging the meddling of Board Members pandering to lost causes. We do see you.

A wiser course is to acknowledge your roused constituency and respond to the issues at hand.

Remedial actions suggested in recent letters from Andy Blauvelt, Chuck Jones, Joan Lubamersky, David Moller, Theodore Horton, and Lucy Dilworth have my support.

The public that MCE purports to serve deserves:

- 1.) an honest and meaningful response to the Marin Civil Grand Jury Report;
- 2.) the appointment of Stephanie Andre and Sally Wilkinson to the Search Committee to recruit and hire the CEO.

Yours sincerely,

Garril Page
